

*A Celebration
for Generations to Come*

50th Anniversary of the American Tree Farm System
Rededication Celebration
Montesano High School • June 3, 1991

CEREMONY

Montesano High School Gymnasium, 10:00-11:00 a.m.

Presentation of Colors

I CORPS Color Guard; Fort Lewis, Washington

National Anthem

Montesano High School Band; Tim Nelson, Director

Welcome

Dick Moulton, Washington State University Cooperative Extension, Grays Harbor County

Introductory Remarks

Secretary of State Ralph Munro, State of Washington
Master of Ceremonies

Presentations

United States Senator Slade Gorton, Keynote Address

Brian Boyle, Commissioner of Public Lands, Washington State Department of Natural Resources

John W. Creighton, Jr., President, Weyerhaeuser Company

C. D. Weyerhaeuser, Vice President, Manager of Forestry, Land, and Timber
Weyerhaeuser Company (Retired 1958)

Charlie Chambers, Washington State Tree Farmer of the Year, 1978

Closing Comments

Secretary of State Ralph Munro

COMMEMORATIVE TREE PLANTING CEREMONY

Montesano High School, north of track area, 11:15 a.m.

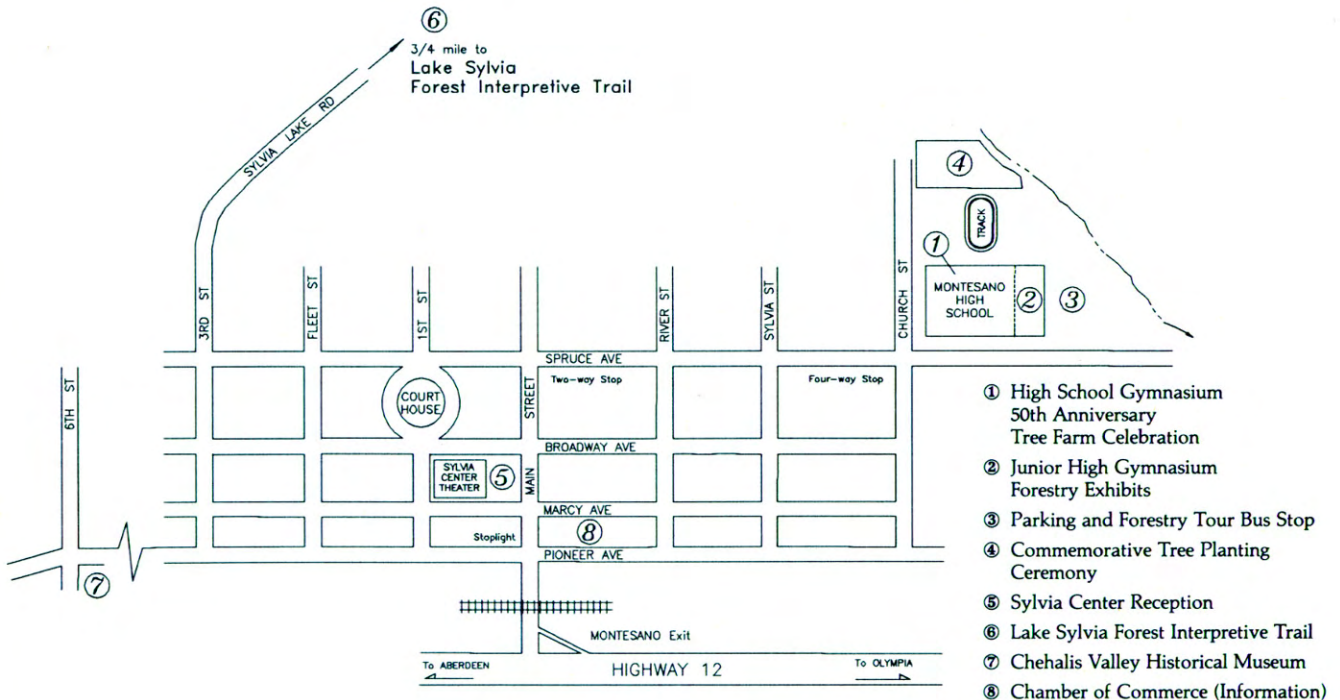

Remarks

Dick Moulton, President, Montesano Tree Farm Association

Lester A. DeCoster, Vice President, American Tree Farm System

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- 11 a.m.-7 p.m. Forestry & Other Natural Resources Exhibits
 Junior High Gymnasium. Also open 9 a.m.-4 p.m. on Tuesday.
- Noon-4 p.m. Reception at Sylvia Center Theater, site of the Dedication of America's first Tree Farm.
 Along with refreshments, activities include:
- Site Recognition – Display of plaque to be mounted and dedicated June 12, 1991.
 - A special showing of forestry-related films, including the premiere of "... the trees go on forever," a new Northwest forestry stewardship video produced by Weyerhaeuser Company.
- 12:15-4:15 p.m. Clemons Tree Farm Bus Tours
 One-hour tours begin at 12:15. Bus departure site: see #3 on map. Last tour at 3:15.
- Noon-4 p.m. Special Exhibit
 Chehalis Valley Historical Museum. Also open noon-4 p.m. Tuesday.
- ANYTIME! Sylvia Creek Forestry Trail
 You are invited to visit this beautiful new trail, officially open to the public May 31.

Thank You

Montesano 50th American Tree Farm Anniversary Celebration Committee

Mr. Harry Bell
ITT Rayonier

Mr. Bill Denholm
Superintendent, Montesano Schools
Montesano Chamber of Commerce

Ms. Margaret Downey
Montesano Community Schools

Ms. Diane Ellison
Ellison Timber and Properties

Mr. Jerry Gutzwiler
Weyerhaeuser Company

Mr. Todd Lindley
Lindley Financial Services
Montesano Chamber of Commerce

Mr. Bryon Loucks
Weyerhaeuser Company
Washington State Tree Farm Association

Mr. Mark Mauren
Department of Natural Resources

Mr. Tom Monaghan
Weyerhaeuser Company
Montesano Chamber of Commerce

Mr. Dick Moulton
WSU/Grays Harbor Extension

Mr. Chris Pickering
Pick-Rite Thriftway
Montesano Chamber of Commerce

Mr. Ron Schillinger
City of Montesano Forester

Mr. Larry Smith
Grays Harbor County Department of Forestry

Mr. Bill Stewart
Attorney/Tree Farmer
Montesano Chamber of Commerce

Mr. Dick Stone
Department of Fisheries

Ms. Julie Truax
Volunteer

Mr. Jim Walls
Columbia-Pacific Resource Conservation and Development

Mr. Steve Webster
WSU Cooperative Extension

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

The 50-Year Committee wishes to acknowledge the citizens of the City of Montesano and local community, along with the following individuals, for their extraordinary dedication to this celebration and related events through 1991.

Mr. Bill Brookshire, Montesano Chief of Police
Ms. Rhoda Gall, Weyerhaeuser Company
Ms. Sharon Meier, WSU/Grays Harbor Extension
Ms. Stephanie Rowland, Weyerhaeuser Company
Mr. Don Wilbur, Weyerhaeuser Company

