

Southern Lumbermen Survivors of "Tuscania"

The accompanying photograph shows a group of Louisiana and Mississippi boys, members of Company "E," Sixth Battalion, Twentieth Engineers, Forestry Regiment, all of whom are survivors of the torpedoed Tuscania. The photograph was sent by one of the boys to the Southern Pine Association at New Orleans with the request that it be published in The Southern Lumberman. The names of the men with the firms with which they were connected are as follows:

Left to Right—Sitting.

Stodghill, Hugh J., Rayville, La., O. S. Hawes Lumber Co., Arkansas City, Ark.

Williams, Joseph H., Hornbeck, La., McClain-Fenn Co., Hornbeck, La.

Johnson, John A., Pollock, La., Long-Bell Lumber Co., Lake Charles, La.

Terzia, Leo F., Monroe, La., Bliss-Cook Oak Co., Blissville, Ark.

Barnett, Charles B. (Sergt), Moss Point, Miss., Joyce-Watkins Co., Hattiesburg, Miss.

Left to Right—Kneeling.

Rains, James R., Dyer, Tenn., Goodlander-Robertson Lumber Co., Memphis, Tenn.

Carroll, Phil H. (Corp.), Alexandria, La., Carroll Lumber Co., Alexandria, La.

Mitchell, Gordon J., Grayson, La., Metropolis Bending Co., Metropolis, Ill.

Robin, William M., Jeanerette, La., Baldwin Lumber Co., Baldwin, La.

Moody, Magnus M. (Sergt), Poplarville, Miss., Cybur Lumber Co., Cybur, Miss.

Left to Right—Standing.

Morgan, Alfred K., Bogalosa, La., Great Southern Lumber Co., Bogalosa, La.

Vanlandingham, Charles S. (Corp.), Lumberton, Miss., Edward Hines Yellow Pine Co., Lumberton, Miss.

Sears, George J., Hammond, La., Lyon Cypress Co., Garyville, La.

Terzia, Fensky C. (Corp.), Monroe, La., Grayling Lumber Co., and O. S. Hawes Lumber Co., Monroe, La.