

Gifts to the Forest History Society Library

July 1, 1997 to June 30, 1998

- Ken Drushka: copies of his book written with Hannu Kontinen, Tracks in the Forest: The Evolution of Logging Machinery, and negatives of all FHS photographs used in the book.
- Gil Cooke: newspaper article from a 1910 Mexican Herald entitled "Development of an Empire: Great Work Projected by Mexico North-Western Railway."
- Lynn Day: F. K. Weyerhaeuser: A Biography by Charles E. Twining.
- Keith R. Hundley: "A Trip Through the Varied and Extensive Operations of the John L. Roper Lumber Co. in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia" from American Lumberman in 1907.
- Michael Pfeiffer: The Ouachita and Ozark-St. Francis National Forests: A History of the Lands and USDA Forest Service Tenure by Stephen Strausberg and Walter A. Hough.
- Joe Hogue (North Carolina Forest Service): a video on Naval Stores History.
- Deborah Walker: Fifty Years of Service to California: A History of the Northern California Section Society of American Foresters 1916-1966 by Woodbridge Metcalf.
- D. Robert Hakala: two of his publications, On the Upward Trail with a Park Ranger: Isle Royale National Park, 1950-1955 and Forest Naturalists on Land and Sea: The First Decade of Interpretive Services in the Alaska Region, 1962-1971.
- Hartford Lambright: newspaper article on the Rapides Lumber Co., Ltd., in Rapides Parish, Louisiana.
- Elwood R. Maunder (former FHS Executive Director): material pertaining to FHS history; a 1925 article by William B. Greeley; and news of forest history from Northern California.
- Ron Sheay: The Allegheny Society of American Foresters: A Seventy-Five Year History 1922-1997 by J. Bernard Hogg and Sheay.
- Jennie Tichenor: a copy of her 1997 Masters' thesis from New York University: "Environment as Weapon, Environment as Casualty: Environmental Damage Resulting from World War II and its Documentation in History."
- Mart Stewart: several of his recent articles including: "'Let Us Begin With the Weather': Climate, Race, and Cultural Distinctiveness in the American South" which appeared in the 1997 book Nature & Society in Historical Context.
- Peter Murphy (former FHS President of the Board): Broadaxe to Flying Shear: The Mechanization of Forest Harvesting East of the Rockies by C. Ross Silversides and Richard A. Rajala.
- James Kates (Bell Fellow): his 1997 Ph.D. dissertation in Mass Communication from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. It is entitled "Making a Middle Landscape: Writers, Editors, and the Re-Imagining of the Northern Forest, 1919-1933."
- Rob Messick: his recently completed study "Old Growth Forest Communities in the Grandfather District of Pisgah National Forest."
- Barbara Flye: 4 early volumes of American Forests' journal The Forester (1898 to 1901).
- Pamela A. Connors (Stanislaus National Forest): her work The Sugar Pine Railway: History of a Sierran Logging Railroad.
- Jacques Arbouin: information on the trees of Cognac, France.
- Zeb White: information on the forest products industry in Australia and South Africa, as well as on the Bowater Co. and the East Texas Pulp and Paper Co.
- Bob Walls (Bell Fellow): his Ph.D. dissertation in Folklore and American Studies from Indiana University entitled "The Making of the American Logger: Traditional Culture and Public Imagery in the Realm of the Bunyanesque."
- Bill Howe: Collins Almanor Forest: 51 Years of Forest Management.
- J.E. de Steiguer: his book The Age of Environmentalism.
- John Bliss (Bell Fellow): Timber Dependency in Alabama and the Southeast: An Annotated Bibliography.
- Kenney Funderburke: an extensive set of maps of lumber company holdings in West Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina from the 1930s to the 1960s.
- Jonathan K. Gerland: an article he edited for the Texas Gulf Historical & Biographical Record entitled "The Captain at Cairo or How I Became A Land Lubber: E. I. Kellie's Account of Log Driving on the Neches River."
- James E. Strain: an issue of South Dakota History.
- Les Whitmore: Forest Production for Tropical America by Frank H. Wadsworth.
- David A. Mittell: an article in Harvard Magazine by Christopher B. Daly entitled "Dr. Foster's Forest: The Modern Scientific Uses of Harvard's Working Woods."
- Joseph P. Hereford, Jr.: photocopies of records at the National Archives relating to the Edward Hines Lumber Co. operations at Hines and Seneca, Oregon in 1935.
- Robert H. Mills: slides of U.S. Forest Service historic photos and photos of artifacts at the Louisiana Forestry Museum.
- Douglas G. Turner: manuals on timber estimating field work, forest firefighting, and forest fire pump units.
- Jacquelin Gilbert (Tenneco Packaging): several years of the journals: EPA Journal, Timber Harvesting, and Timber Processing.
- Michel Batisse: his article "Biosphere Reserves: A Challenge for Biodiversity Conservation & Regional Development" that appeared in the journal Environment.
- Neil S. Forkey: his article "Damning the Dam: Ecology and Community in Ops Township, Upper Canada" from the Canadian Historical Review.
- Fred Beck: an extra copy of the two volume Encyclopedia of North American Forest History edited by Richard C. Davis.
- Charles H. W. Foster: Stepping Back to Look Forward: A History of the Massachusetts Forest, which he edited.
- Andreas Jordahl Rhude: information on timber frame construction and home building.
- George E. Graham: his report "Santa Barbara Tie and Pole in the Sangre de Cristos."
- Ikuo Ota: two articles he has written in Japanese on the U.S. Forest Service.
- Barry Volkers: newspaper and magazine articles; and the 1997 I.W.A. Canada Annual.
- Harold K. Steen (former FHS President): approximately 50 items including: an album of views of the St. Louis Exposition in 1904; slides of the Jari Project in Brazil; and a number of rare government documents.