THE COMMITTEES

House Committee on Agriculture

Charles F. Scott, Kansas, Chairman

William W. Cocks, New York	L. B. Hanna, North Dakota
Ralph D. Cole, Ohio	Frank Plumley, Vermont
Gilbert N. Hangen, Iowa	John Lamb, Virginia
James C. McLaughlin, Michigan	Asbury F. Lever, South Carolina
Willis C. Hawley, Oregon	Jack Beall, Texas
Joseph Howell, Utah	William W. Rucker, Missouri
Pleasant T. Chapman, Illinois	Augustus O. Stanley, Kentucky
Charles C. Pratt, Pennsylvania	Gordon Lee, Georgia
William H. Andrews, New Mexico	James T. McDermott, Illinois

The Weeks bill in the House is in the hands of the above-named committee, which stands, as the record shows, 8 to 7 in favor of the bill, with three men (Pratt, Hanna, McDermott) unplaced.

The Senate Committee

In the Senate the bill is in charge of the Committee on Forest Reservations and the Protection of Game: Senator Brandegee, Connecticut, Chairman; Senators Depew, New York; Perkins, California; Burnham, New Hampshire; Smoot, Utah; Lodge, Massachusetts; Tillman, South Carolina; Overman, North Carolina; Taylor, Tennessee.

This committee is believed to be practically unanimous in favor of the bill.

The bill should pass the House by an increased majority. It must first be got out of the committee.

Make known to your Senators and Representatives your opinion on the bill and urge others to do so. This is a patriotic duty. If your representative voted yes, let him know that you approve; if no, use what influence you can to show him the importance of the bill and the reasons why he should vote yes; if he did not vote, try to stimulate his interest so that he will vote next time. This is your duty, the way in which you can help.
