

INDEX
VOLUME III
1975

PAGE	SUBJECT
75	Proposed Expansion of the Redwood National Park- The Industry's View.
77	Collier Launches Attack on Resources Appointee.
78-81	Clippings, Reference to Forest Practice Legislation.
82	New Plan for Parks -- Resources Secretary, Claire Dedrick.
83	Loggers Back Move to Cut Attorney Generals Power.
84	A Plea to Save the Last Redwood, Congressman Phillip Burton.
85	Collier Bill on Timber Dies in Committee.
86-90	Clippings, Reference to Fish & Game; EIR'S and Logging.
91-92	Small Forest Owners Organize, Protest Onerous Rules.
93.	Judge Orders Protection for Park from Logging.
95	Federal Failure at Redwood Park.
97-98	"Redwood National Patchwork" A Political Compromise Plants Seeds of Discord - Dan Walters.
99-100	Clippings, Sierra Club Urges Action.
101	AN OPPOSING VIEW--Lumberman Disputes Judges Ruling, Claims Redwoods are Protected. William D. Walsh, Senior V.P. Arcata National Corporation.
103	Sierra Club Replies to Redwood Company Statement.
104	State Plea to Save the Tallest Trees. Claire T. Dedrick.
106-110	Clippings, Reference to Logging and Protection of Park.
111	Statement to Board of Forestry. Claire Dedrick.
113-115	Clippings, Reference to Logging and Redwoods.
117	1975 Fall Bulletin of Save-the-Redwoods League.
119	Redwood Lumbering Defended and Assailed.
120	Penny Pinching in the Parks -- A Shadow over Spirit of 1976, US News & World Report.
121	Announcement -- Board of Forestry Hearing on Logging Practices in the Redwood Creek Basin.

2.
INDEX - VOLUME III

- 123 Redwood Park's 11th Hour as Clear-Cutting Continues.
- 124 State Board of Forestry Tours Redwood Creek Basin.
- 125 The Short, Sorry History of Redwood National Park. Peggy Wayburn, Sierra Club Bulletin.
- 127-132 Clippings, More Plans to Save the Worm and Charges on the Park Battle.
- 133 Comparison of Forest Practice Rules, National Park Service, Co-op Agreements and GDF Proposal of 11/10/75.
- 134 Letter to Chairman, Board of Forestry in reference to Moratorium and Protection of the Tall Trees, DeWitt Nelson.
- 135 Letter to Director Moran, Department of Conservation from Bill B. Dendy, Executive Officer, State Water Resources Control Board.
- 136 Testimony of Peter H. Zars on Logging Practices in Redwood Creek Basin. Sierra Club, Redwood Chapter.
- 137 Testimony of Larry E. Moss on Logging Practices in Redwood Creek Basin. The Planning and Conservation League.
- 138 Department of Fish & Games Comments. Board of Forestry Hearing, November 17/18. E. C. Fullerton.
139. Testimony before the Board of Forestry, November 17/18. Richard J. Janda, U S Geological Survey.
- 141-143 Testimony before the Board of Forestry, November 17/18. on Watershed Conditions in Redwood Creek Basin. John G. Miles.
- 145 Save-the-Redwoods League 1975 Fall Letter.
- 146 Redwood Parks and Reserves other than State and Federal
- 147 Map - Redwood Units within the California State Park System.
- 149-154 Clippings, Serious Erosion Damage, Timber Industry Renews its Environmental Battle. The arguments continue.
- 155-157 Measuring the Worlds Biggest Tree.
- 159 Save-the Redwood League Offers a Counter Proposal.
- 160-161 Park Official Views Controversial Issue. Loggers, Ecologists Agree on Controls.
- 162-163 Clippings, More Conflicts. Loggers Exempt from Impact Reports.
- 165 Redwood Creek. a report. Jerry K. Ficklin. Winzler & Kelly, Consulting Engineers.