

Table of Contents

Contributors vii
Preface xi
Introduction 1
Map of the Weeks Act 4
The Weeks Act 6

SECTION ONE — ROOTS AND FRUITS

CHAPTER 1. 13
The Weeks Act: The Law that Made the National Forests Truly National James G. Lewis and Lincoln Bramwell

CHAPTER 2. 31
A Conservative for Conservation: John Weeks (1860–1926)
Iris D. Baird

CHAPTER 3. 37
A Brief History of Cooperative Forest Fire Control and the Weeks Act
Lewis F. Southard

CHAPTER 4. 43
“Embrace the Natural Wonder of Our Land”:
The Weeks Act and Wilderness in the East
Char Miller

CHAPTER 5. 51
What Lies Beneath: Surface and Mineral Rights and the Weeks Act
Dave Fredley

CHAPTER 6. 57
Transforming the Cutover: The Establishment of National Forests in Northern Michigan
Joseph J. Jones

CHAPTER 7. 67
“A Blackened Fire-Scorched World”:
Establishing the Francis Marion National Forest
Al Hester

CHAPTER 8. 79

The Weeks Act as a Public Investment
Robert G. Healy

SECTION TWO — PLANTING FOR THE FUTURE

CHAPTER 9. 91

The Weeks Act: Lessons in Perseverance
Tom Tidwell

CHAPTER 10. 97

Implementing the Weeks Act: A Lawyer's Perspective
James B. Snow

CHAPTER 11. 109

A Remarkable Past, an Uncertain Future:
Funding Land Acquisitions in the Eastern Forests
Jad Daley

CHAPTER 12. 121

New Partnerships for Conservation:
Trends in Forestland Ownership and Conservation
Peter R. Stein and Marc Hiller

CHAPTER 13. 129

Preserving the Realm of the Gods:
The Case for a National Forest in Hawai'i
John Henshaw and James G. Lewis

CHAPTER 14. 139

Family Forest Owners Rule! Forest Conservation Enters a New Era
Brett J. Butler

CHAPTER 15. 151

The Weeks Act and the Future of Land Conservation Policy in the United States
V. Alaric Sample

Notes 157

Index 171