Dear Mr. Weyerhaeuser:

Thank you very kindly for your letter of May 1, 1957.

You may be assured that myself and all the other employees here at Vancouver agree wholeheartedly with the contents.

May I also report that we have not heard one negative remark from any one of our wonderful customers in the Northwest regarding this merger, but three different customers have told me they have purchased Weyerhaeuser stock in the past two weeks - what a wonderful assurance this is for our future success.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Weyerhaeuser:

It is very gratifying to receive such a cordial letter from you dated May 1st, in which you welcome us into the Weyerhaeuser Organization. We in Kieckhefer-Eddy are proud of our accomplishments and look forward with great enthusiasm towards further important progress with Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Your warm welcome is accepted with great appreciation and determination to prove that the merger was a smart move for us all.

I regret that we missed your visit to Camden and also that the opportunity to meet you on the Coast was delayed. We have a number of mutual friends who have mentioned your name to us accompanied by words of admiration and praise.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Weyerhaeuser:

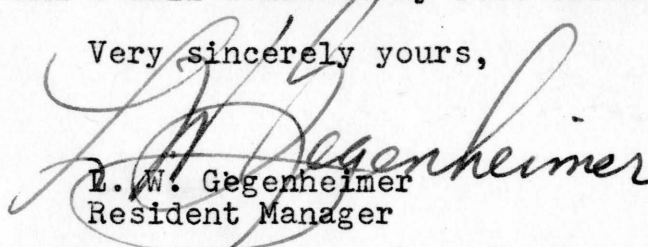

Thank you very much for your kind letter of May 1st, welcoming me to the Weyerhaeuser organization.

I have certainly enjoyed reading the material sent to me by the Weyerhaeuser Sales Company at St. Paul and it has given me a good opportunity to get acquainted with the Weyerhaeuser family.

As for myself, I started with Kieckhefer Container Company at New Orleans February 6, 1930 at the time that the New Orleans plant was opened; this was right after my 18th birthday. From that time until August 10, 1937 when I was transferred to Houston I was superintendant under John Gilbert at New Orleans. On November 5, 1947 I was transferred to the new operation here at McAllen, Texas as resident manager and until that time I was superintendant under Jack Hoff in the Houston operation. I have been here at McAllen ever since.

I feel sure that the merger of Kieckhefer-Eddy into Weyerhaeuser Timber Company will be a source of satisfaction and pride to all of us. Again, as for myself, I want you to know that you can expect my complete co-operation and loyalty and to this end I will dedicate my best efforts.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Weyerhaeuser

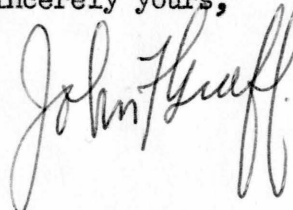

Thank you for your letter of May 1st, welcoming the writer into your organization. From what I have seen to-date, we have certainly merged with a fine organization.

As an Old Timer with 29 years of service, but still quite young in heart, I look forward to another 10 or 15 more years of pleasant association.

I would also like to assure you, that our New York office all feel the same way, and can be depended upon to serve both you and our good customers loyally and profitably.

I am looking forward to meeting you some day.

Sincerely yours,

May 1, 1957.

Mr. H. M. Kieckhefer,
North Stanwick Road,
Moorestown, N. J.

Dear Mr. Kieckhefer:

The completion of the merger of Kieckhefer-Eddy into Weyerhaeuser Timber Company is a source of great satisfaction and pride to the Weyerhaeuser organization. We recognize what a fine group you have in Kieckhefer-Eddy and believe that your experience and abilities will add greatly to the success of our joint efforts.

Weyerhaeuser has the capacity to grow and harvest great quantities of fine timber; likewise, modern facilities for the production of pulp and paper. Kieckhefer-Eddy has excellent plants for producing shipping cartons, folding boxes, and milk containers, and knows how to service its customers. The combination of these facilities and organizations trained in these techniques puts our merged organization in excellent position to provide the best possible service to its customers. To this end, we must dedicate our best efforts.

On behalf of the Weyerhaeuser organization, I extend to you our warmest welcome and take this opportunity to express the hope that you will find our association in the years to come satisfying and worth while.

Very sincerely yours,

President.
